

Making Your Day means that your child has been responsible for coming to school ready to learn. Specific responsibilities that have been followed through on include:

1. Being prepared with materials for class.
 - a) Pencils, texts, notebooks, etc.
2. Behaving as expected in the classroom, in the cafeteria, on the playground, and on campus.
3. Being actively involved in learning.
 - a) Tuned into lesson being presented.
 - b) Keeps attention directed to the task on hand
 - c) Listening.
 - d) Following through on work.
 - e) Participating in appropriate activities in class.
4. Putting forth maximum effort according to each individual's learning style.
5. Choosing appropriate methods for solving peer interaction problems such as:
 - a) Reporting to teacher on playground or in the classroom.
 - b) Walking away.
 - c) Talking the situation through.
6. Acknowledging impact of their actions on others.
7. Accepting and giving constructive suggestions in a helpful way.